

“Managed back up: User Group forum”
30th April 2009, The Winston house

LMN in conjunction with InTechnology has organised a User Group forum to inform you on the latest value add tools of the managed backup service that will enable users to save costs of data storage.

14.00-14.15 Registration with coffee/tea

14.15-14.30 Welcome and Opening by Chair, Mr. Malcolm Raggett, IT Manager, School of Oriental and African Studies and Chair of the Business Development Group, LMN

14.30-14.50 Evaluation of data management and challenges with e-mail archiving at Newham College of Further Education - Mr. Tony Jack, Head of IT and Systems, Newham FE

14.50-15.15. Achieving your required data & voice services cost savings - Richard Quine, Director of Product Management, InTechnology

15.15-15.40 Multi-Tier Data Management - regain control of your data storage costs - Stefan Haase, Marketing Director, InTechnology

15.40-15.45 Closing Remarks from the Chair

15.45-16.00 Q's & A's Session for the Delegates

16.00 onwards	Networking Reception with a selection of wine and beer and nibbles
----------------------	---

All events are by INVITATION ONLY
For further information, contact m.ilia@lmn.net.uk © LMN 2009 programme may be subject to change